

CELFINET is currently looking for qualified candidates to fill UI/UX Designer positions in its Lisbon and Porto offices.

Responsibilities and duties:

Reporting to the Product Development Manager, the selected candidate will join a remarkably experienced and integrated team to jointly develop Celfinet products in the Telecom business using highly innovative Technology and Methodologies.

Among other, the main responsibilities will be the following:

- scope and plan UX activities, including selection of the most appropriate tools and techniques
- Work directly with Product Managers and Developers to identify and solve user problems
- create and deliver high quality UX deliverables among others responsibilities.
- Participate in the support and maintenance of Celfinet applications;
- Design and implement modern UI components;
- Produce UX and UI documentation

Job requirements:

- Passion about Technology;
- Team-worker.
- Master Degree in Design, Multimedia, Computer Science, IT Engineering or equivalent;
- 3 years of experience;
- Experience in designing, planning and facilitating user research;
- Demonstrated experience in crafting usable digital interfaces – Portfolio and links to applications designed/developed is mandatory;
- Experience in web development using HTML5 and CSS3 (optionally javascript)
- Knowledge of UI patterns;
- Client Focus with pro-active communication;
- Experience and great knowledge of Agile Methodologies;
- Interest in highly complex projects;
- Good planning and organization skills;
- Substantial level of autonomy;
- Excellent communication skills and fluency in English.

CELFINET offers its employees a comprehensive compensation package and the opportunity to work in a uniquely challenging environment within a highly motivated team. Submit today your application to JoinUs@celfinet.com if you are the candidate we are looking for!